Boston, Mass., July 30.—[Special.]—The two failures which have created a great deal of excitement on the street and in commercial circles during the past week culminated to-day in the assignment of Thomas T. Shaw & Bros., dealers in leather and leather findings, with their business connections, and the assignment of Shaw & Co., dealers in boots and shoes, with their business connections, which will not in general affect the business of the former firm. The liabilities of T. Shaw & Bros. are placed at $1,000,000, and the assets, if not realized upon rapidly, will not more than equal a million of dollars. It was a matter of much comment on the street that the Shaw failure was precipitated by the assignment of Shaw & Co., and from the fact that the Shaw failure was followed by the assignment of Shaw & Co
